

EcoCamp 2018 Scholarship Application

Scholarship Information

Pickering Creek Audubon Center has received a generous grant from Wild Birds Unlimited, the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, as well as charitable donations from community members to provide scholarships for students in need to attend this year's EcoCamp.

If you are granted a scholarship, you are responsible for a non-refundable deposit. The deposit must be paid to reserve your camper's spot.

Age Group	Day Length	Camp Tuition	Scholarship	Non-refundable deposit
Fledglings	9 am – 2 pm	$130	- $80	$50
Fledglings	9 am – 4 pm	$180	- $100	$80
Larks & Shrikes	9 am – 4 pm	$180	- $100	$80

A camper may only receive one scholarship each summer. Scholarships are granted on a first-come, first-served basis and based on need, space availability, and completeness of the application process.

Campers will also be asked to write a short story or draw a picture (depending on age) at the end of the camp week about what their camp experience meant to them. The scholarship application page follows.

The application can be emailed to the Camp Director, Krysta Hougen, at khougen@audubon.org or mailed to:

Pickering Creek Audubon Center
Attn: EcoCamp Director
11450 Audubon Lane
Easton, MD 21601

Further information about EcoCamp can be found at pickeringcreek.audubon.org

If you have any questions about this process please feel free to contact the Camp Director, Krysta Hougen, at (410) 822-4903 ext. 22 or email at khougen@audubon.org

I have attached a separate sheet of paper to explain why my child is a candidate for financial assistance.

I understand that I am responsible for arranging daily transportation for my child and for paying the non-refundable deposit ($50 or $80 depending on the camp day length). I will sign them in and out everyday and I will make every effort to have my child attend all camp dates. The information I have given on this application is complete and accurate.
